What's a Bolsheviki?

Blairmore, Alberta,
October 1st, 1919.

Dear Mr. Editor,
I am frequently asked what is a Bolsheviki? By a little change of wording, taken from the Encyclopedia Britannica, it is "One who hath yearnings for equal division of unequal earnings, a loafer or knave or both." He is willing to fork out his quarters and pocket your dollar.

Pre-War Days Are Quickly Resumed

Canadians are Apt to Forget that the Struggle is Not Finished Yet.

IT'S funny how quickly we slip back into the old groove of life, even though jarred out of them by years of war and wrench by sad partings.

Isn't it true that in most Canadian homes life goes on to day pretty much as it did five black years ago, the stalwart sons come to the breakfast table with the same noisy greetings, though there is, perhaps, a shade deeper ring to their voices? Returned from war, the head of a family sits in his old accustomed place at story time, perhaps bringing a new kind of prince and knight for the youngsters.

With the men, home life goes on pretty much as before. The harsh and realities of war are slipping into misty background. We can never forget the price in flesh and blood; we can easily forget the price in treasure.

When we hear of plans for the Victory Loan, 1919, we are brought back with a jerk to the hard fact that the cost of Canada's Victory has not been fully paid, and that the future lays burdens upon us also.

Town Wins in Action Against Flu Delinquents

The case of the Town of Blairmore versus some twenty individuals for recovery of hospital fees in connection with their treatment during the flu epidemic last year, was heard before Judge McNeill on Wednesday. Solicitor Gillis appeared for the town and H. Ouland of Lethbridge, for most of the delinquents. Judgment was rendered in favor of the town for all fees claimed plus the cost of action.

The case of E. Pozzi versus Robert Gray was also disposed of; judgment being rendered in favor of Pozzi for amount of claim. This was an action for damages arising out of a collision between a Ford operated by Gray and a Chevrolet belonging to Pozzi, standing in front of the latter's place of business on Victoria Street. The incident happened last spring at a time when Victoria Street was literally a sheet of ice, and Gray lost control of his car when travelling at a fair rate of speed. Before he could regain control of the hurly Ford, it collided with the Chevrolet, rupturing off considerable of the mud guards and doing other damage necessitating hospital treatment for several weeks. The Ford was damaged almost beyond repair.

Death of Mrs. H. E. Lyon

The news of the death of Mrs. H. E. Lyon came as a shock to this community the early part of the week. Mrs. Lyon was but in the prime of life, and was taken suddenly ill with typhoid fever a couple of weeks ago, from which she failed to rally. She leaves besides her husband and a large number of other relatives; ten children, the eldest of whom is about fifteen years. A brother, Thomas Appleby, resides in Blairmore.

Mrs. Lyons moved with her family to Calgary in 1915, when her husband then Lieut. Colonel Lyon, was about to leave for overseas in charge of the 192nd battalion.

Interment took place at Calgary on Tuesday of this week and was very largely attended.

The Rev. William Irvine, of Calgary, formerly editor of the Non-Partisan, has gone to Ontario to take hand in behalf of the farmers' organization in that province in the provincial elections which are to be held there on October 20.

Strike in Britain A Serious Problem

London.—Though it would be premature to abandon hope of a settlement of the railway strike, the situation has disappointed the expectation of some arrangement resulting from the numerous conferences between the labor representatives and the government, and the position is again grave. James Henry Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, announced that the efforts to re-open the negotiations had collapsed, owing to government refusal to go beyond its previous offer, but appended that other unions than the railwaymen were continuing their efforts at mediation, but, while the strike continued, the railroad men would do nothing to hinder mediation.

After a conference of the executive of the railwaymen and transport workers, Mr. Thomas issued a statement in which he said:

"Rumors of a settlement are incorrect. The negotiations have broken down, inasmuch as the government offer does not differ from that of September 26.

The government is increasing its organization to ensure service and under emergency powers have closed Regent's park to the public, and are using the park as a clearing centre for market produce, frozen meat and fish, in the same way that Hyde Park is being used for the distribution of milk.

Both the Prime Minister and Secretary Thomas issued statements, which were shown on every television picture screen, setting forth briefly the respective attitudes of the government and the union.

The Premier declared that the government was not engaged in fighting trades unions, but to prevent an attack against the life of the community. Secretary Thomas declared that the railwaymen were not fighting the community, but against a conspiracy to lower wages.

Women of Archangel Are Buying Poison

Intend to Kill Themselves Rather Than Fall Into Hands of the Reds

Paris.—Chemist shops at Archangel are openly selling poison to many young women who are buying it with the expressed intention of killing themselves rather than fall into the hands of the Bolsheviks, according to a United States officer who has just arrived from Northern Russia.

While several shiploads of Bolsheviks have been deported from Archangel by entente powers the majority of anti-Bolshevik population refuse to leave, saying it is impossible to go penniless into a strange country.

German Agent Sentenced

New York—"Count" Max Lynat Loudon, a former German agent, who included among his exploits a plot to kidnap President Wilson and invade Canada with 150,000 German reservists, was sentenced to three years in Sing Sing prison recently for attempted forgery. The "count" was recently released from the same prison where he has spent his time since April, 1916, serving an indeterminate sentence for bigamy.

British Occupy Odessa

Vienna.—Troops from the British fleet in the "Black Sea" have been landed in Odessa, and have occupied the city, according to advices received at Budapest.

Huge Stocks Held In Cold Storage

Winnipeg.—There is sufficient butter in cold storage in the warehouses of the Manitoba Cold Storage Company and the William Davies Company to take care of Manitoba's home consumption for nearly five months, reports filed by the managers of the two plants at a recent session of the Board of Commerce food probe revealed.

Gordon W. Shantz, general manager of the Manitoba Cold Storage Company, stated that there are in storage at present 1,367,000 pounds of butter. John MacPherson, manager of William Davies' plant, has 367,878 pounds of butter in storage, making a total of 1,734,878 pounds of butter stored in these two warehouses at present. Both managers declared that this was nothing out of

Notables Marked For Assassination

Testimony Given By Former Military Attache of German Consulate

San Francisco, Cal.—Charles M. Schwab, Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, former British Ambassador to the United States; Lord Fisher, of the British Admiralty; the late Lord Kitchener, and the British vice-consulate at Ensenada, Mexico, were marked for assassination by agents of the German government, according to sworn testimony given by former First Lieutenant Wilhelm von Brinken, formerly military attache of the German consulate in San Francisco, to Commissioner of Immigration Henry M. White, of Seattle, Washington.

A transcript of the statement was received here by Attorney Henry M. Owens, von Brinken's legal adviser in San Francisco. Von Brinken is serving a two-year sentence in the federal penitentiary at McNeil's Island for the part he played in the so-called Hindu conspiracy case.

D'Annunzio Aids Regulars

Blockade of Fiume Is More Severe Than Formerly

Rome.—Orders closing the Jugo-Slav frontier have led to the chief of staff of the 26th Italian regiment army corps at Abbazia to interview Captain d'Annunzio's chief of staff and discuss measures to be taken. This has resulted in the sending of some of Captain d'Annunzio's volunteers to hold the armistice line according to the Epoca, which adds: "The event shows the cordial collaboration between the d'Annunzio troops and the regulars."

The correspondent of the Epoca says the blockade of Fiume is more severe than formerly, even mail being held at the frontier. There is food sufficient for three months for the population of Fiume.

Milk Advances In Toronto

Instead of 15 Tickets for a Dollar Consumer Will Receive Only 13

Toronto.—Under the order of the Board of Commerce, the price of milk will be increased here. Instead of 15 tickets for $1, the consumers will now receive 13 tickets for the same sum, which means an advance of a cent per pint.

The board permitted an increase to the farmer of 45 cents a can, which, upon the basis of consumption of 6,000 cans per day, means an increased income for the farmers of $2,700 a day, or $985,000 per year.

Kolchak's Appeal

Omsk.—Coincident with the issuance of a decree calling for the condemnation of a Zerkov, Admiral Kolchak, head of the all-Russian government, made an appeal to the population to drop party struggles and unite around the government.

Custom Receipts

Ottawa.—Customs receipts for the six months of the fiscal year ending September 30 totalled $82,269,212, an increase over the same period last year of $256,323. For the month of September alone receipts totalled $14,833,240, which was $2,752,729 greater than in September, 1918.

Clothing Is Next

On Price List

Retailers Will Be Called To Give Evidence

Toronto.—Another sitting of the Board of Commerce will be held here when Judge Robson, chairman, W. F. O'Connor, vice-chairman, and A. A. Acland, deputy minister of labor, will be the commissioners. present. The probe will embrace the retailers' end of the high price of wearing apparel. Retailers will be called to give evidence, and the costs will be worked back to the manufacturer to see where the great spread comes in the prices of all textiles at the present time.

The sitting of the court promises further interest in the fact that the "big five" packers will be on hand to fight to the last ditch the order bringing down the price of wholesale pork products.

Cheap Lignite Coal

Briquet Industry In Southeastern Saskatchewan Would Be Paying Concern

Winnipeg.—That the last problem in the manufacture of briquets in the lignite fields of southeastern Saskatchewan and Southwestern Manitoba has been solved, and the last doubt as to the feasibility of the plan had been removed, was the statement of Hon. T. H. Johnson, attorney-general. Mr. Johnson stated that on his recent trip to Ottawa he had been shown over the experimental plant of the lignite utilization commission at Ottawa.

The commission, said Mr. Johnson, was proceeding with the plans for erecting a plant which would produce briquets on a paying basis, and will prove the industry to be a good profit-making business enterprise. These briquets, he said, would be placed on the market in the fall of 1920, and would sell for approximately $10 per ton. They were in every way equal to the American anthracite coal. The commission is being financed by the Federal Government and the Provincial Government, and the government of Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

Politics In Luxembourg

Retention of Grand Duchess Charlotte Is Now Quite Certain

Luxembourg.—Balloting in favor of the retention of Grand Duchess Charlotte as ruler, and of the establishment of an economic alliance with France instead of with Belgium, continued to show overwhelming majorities at the start of the second day's count of votes cast in the Plebiscite to determine the future of the Grand Duchy.

The French economic alliance continued to lead in favor of a vote of about 3 to 1. In the count of 14,000 votes, 11,132 were recorded for the Grand Duchess and 2,868 for the republic. 10,071 votes were recorded for an economic alliance with France, and 3,130 for Belgium.

Probably 80,000 votes were cast in all, but 40,000 electors did not vote. Those not voting included the Socialists, whose party ordered abstention. The Socialist claim nearly one-fifth of the electorate.

Hawaiian Volcano Active

Thirty-Mile Stream of Lava Pours Into the Sea

Hilo, Hawaii.—A stream of lava from 800 feet to one mile wide and 300 miles long is pouring from the 13,679-foot crater of the volcano Mauna Loa, across the island from this city, into the sea.

The lava overtopped the crater, and reached the sea nearly 12 hours ahead of the time it had been expected to do so. The eruption of Mauna Loa began four days ago and continued with violence after a brief duration, only to break forth with new force again.

Two ranch homes and other valuable property have been destroyed by the molten rock.

To Change Name of R.N.W.M.P.

Ottawa.—The Northwest Mounted Police is to change its name. In the House Mr. Rowell presented a Bill to amalgamate the Northwest Mounted Police with the Dominion police, to constitute one federal police force. The name of the Northwest Mounted Police will be changed to that of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

Good Roads Construction

Winnipeg.—Authorization for the construction of 277 miles of roads, under the Good Roads Board, is announced. The approximate cost is $676,000. This brings the total mileage up to 3,758 at a cost of about $8,219,000, borne equally by the province and municipalities.

Rumanians Seize German Plane

Manned By Four Officers Who Resented Their Arrest

Geneva.—Rumanian troops have seized a big German biplane carrying 200,000,000 paper rubles and a miniature but complete printing press at Hotin, Bessarabia, according to the Rumanian bureau at Bern. The plane, which was en route to Moscow, was forced to land at Hotin because of a leak in the gasoline tank. It was manned by four German officers, who are said to have resented their arrest. The rubles were all said to have been new notes.

Russian General Must Apologize

For the Arrest of Two United States Officers

Vladivostok.—Maj.-Gen. Graves, commander of the United States forces in Siberia, has demanded an apology from General Rozanoff, in command of Russian troops in Primor province, for the arrest of two United States officers, Captain J. P. Johns and Corporal Benjamin Sperling, and the flogging of the latter by Cossacks commanded by General Kalininkoff. An investigation of the conduct of a Japanese officer at Inan, the place where the arrests took place, has also been begun by the Japanese high command. The incident, which occurred September 5, is considered one of the most serious to occur since the allies landed in Siberia. The men were arrested by a detachment of Cossacks, who claimed the Americans were not provided with identification papers.

May Flame Into War

Italian Situation Becoming More of an International Question

Paris.—The inflamed conditions in the Adriatic region and the dissolution of the Italian parliament for the holding of a general election on November 16, at Rome dispatches have announced, is giving the supreme council much concern, in view of the possibility of all the Balkans becoming involved in the turmoil.

In peace conference circles the approaching Italian elections are regarded as a struggle between the war and peace parties, or rather between the forces on the military side and those of socialist and pacific tendencies, while it appears that d'Annunzio and Fiume would be an issue.

The feeling is growing in Paris that as d'Annunzio has indicated that his aspirations include far more than Fiume, the Italian situation is daily becoming more of an international question.

The view is expressed here that the agitation might flame into war any day, if, for instance, a Jugo-Slav should happen to be killed by Italian troops.

U. S. Shipyard Tied Up Now

About 60,000 Men in Grip of Great Industrial Struggle

San Francisco.—Involving approximately 60,000 men, including both skilled and unskilled labor, San Francisco, Oakland and Alameda are in the grip of industrial disturbances which have greatly hampered industry in the entire San Francisco Bay district. Shipyard and iron trades workers, tailors, stevedores, taxi drivers, clerks, street railway employees, ferry boat employees and river stevedores are affected.

The most serious development in the labor situation came when 25,000 shipyard and iron trades workers in Oakland and Alameda, and 30,000 in San Francisco, struck. The shipyard and iron workers went out in an effort to force the payment of a wage increase of eight cents per hour.

Union officials say the tie-up of the shipyards is complete. No statement was forthcoming from the California Metal-Trades Association.

Fire Wipes Out Town

St. John, N.B.—Orromocto, picturesque and thriving town of Sunbury County, was almost totally destroyed by fire with a property loss of at least $500,000.

Fire started in the River Valley's lumber company saw mill, and mill offices and yards, with about 4,000,000 feet of lumber, were destroyed, together with five stores and several dwelling houses, the lumber company's loss being $300,000.

Spanish Villages Flooded

Madrid.—Carcagente and Liria, villages in the province of Valencia, are reported to have been inundated by floods. The damage is reported heavy.

Joo Much Canadian Bacon

So Plentiful That It Is Being Sold To Soapmakers in England

Montreal.—The Herald quotes a man who has just returned from Liverpool as claiming that unrequited Canadian bacon was sent to be soap factories in England. "Canadian bacon is a drug on the market in England," says the Herald's informant. "When I was at Liverpool 2,000 cases of Canadian bacon were going to be sold to the soap makers. It was sold to Lever Bros. to be made into soap. Cases of Canadian bacon of 500-pound lot cases sold for 12 1/2 each, or 28 cents for 500 pounds."

Hunger is sure to come to those who sit down and wait.

Adriatic Question Must Be Cleared

French Government Approves International Show

Planned to Bring Producers and Buyers Together

Paris.—An immense project of erecting a huge building on the banks of the Seine in Paris, in which will be held a permanent exhibition designed to bring together the producers and buyers of the world, has found the support of a French financial corporation. The object is to promote commercial intercourse between allied and friendly nations. The building, which will be constructed by the Quai de Passy, will probably cost $200,000,000. There will be held a continuous world's fair. The proposition has the approval of the French authorities. Twelve and a half acres of land have been secured as a site. The structure will have a frontage of 845 feet and a depth of 600 feet. The floor surface will be nearly two and a half million square feet.

Bela Kun Not Wanted

Bolshevik Agitator Has to Be Transferred to Avoid Violence By Populace

Milan.—Bela Kun, who was interned by the Austrian Government at Heilbrunn, near Regensburg, has been transferred. The inhabitants of the neighboring villages, chiefly peasants, were so exasperated at the presence of the notorious Hungarian Bolshevik director that they held a meeting of protest and threatened to commit violence. The Austrian Peasants' League and the officials of the district also made representations at Vienna, and the government considered it wise to remove the objectionable prisoner. Bela Kun was, without warning, transferred to another habitat, and the locality is kept secret to avoid similar protests.

Sugar Rationing Suggested

Shortage at Calgary Is Acute, and This Idea Is Put Forward

Calgary.—The adoption of the sugar card rationing system used in Britain was advocated here as a solution of the sugar shortage, which has become acute, when one of the local dealers at the price probe now being carried on stated that he believed this would be the only possible way of guaranteeing an equitable distribution of what sugar was coming into the city. Some of the whole salers admitted having received good shipments of sugar. The probe into the sugar situation will conclude here October 2, when other lines of business will be taken up.

Negro Attacks White Woman

Omaha.—Mrs. W. G. Wismer, a white woman, was attacked by a negro in the rear of her home. The negro escaped.

The Wismer home is in the heart of Omaha's "black belt," which is under control of military authorities under the command of Major-General Leonard Wood.

Wooden Man to Go

Berlin.—The great wooden von Hindenburg monument, which during the war was studied by the populace with nails, representing so much money, will be demolished, according to the Vossische Zeitung.

Some Women are Unable to Appreciate a Gentleman at Any Stage of the Game

Washington.—To allow Italy's claim to Fiume, solely on the basis of its forcible occupation by d'Annunzio's irregular troops, is the opinion of members of the supreme council in Paris, would involve recognition by the entente of Rumania's claims in Hungary; Greece's claims to large portions of Turkey, and even possibly Germany's claim to rich portions of Western Russia. It is felt that admission by the council of the right of any nation to seize territory regardless of pledges to refrain from aggression, would be regarded as tantamount to an abandonment of the basic principles upon which the peace conference was assembled, and as threatening a permanent peace.

Plans already are being considered, it became known here, to apply strong pressure to bringing about a termination of the dispute over the Adriatic question, as well as in other cases where trouble has arisen jeopardizing the authority of the supreme council and threatening to set at naught its decisions founded upon powers conferred by the armistice and peace treaty.

Strike Levels Social Distinction

Aristocrats Load Freight, Drive Engines and Handle Fish

London.—Social lines, which might in the past have been rigidly held in England, have broken down since the strike began, at least as a result of the railroad strike. A duke was seen driving a motor lorry through the streets; while an earl was in the charge of a train on the motor heading a convoy of fish from Billingsgate. The sixth earl of Port Arlington was among those whose names are found in the social register who were engaged in unloading perishable goods, milk and churns from a train. Frederick Henry Smith, son and heir of Baron Colwyn, was the fireman on the Liverpool-London express when it rolled into this city.

Some Women are Unable to Appreciate a Gentleman at Any Stage of the Game

The Pas, Man.—The elements and neglect are slowly crumbling the terminal of the Humber's Bay railway at Port Nelson, according to Captain R. H. Taylor, of the mounted police patrol boat, who has just arrived here from the bay. He declared that the roadbed of the railway itself from Mile 214 is rapidly going to pieces, and all along the line poles are lying on the ground. The terminal shops, he said, are lying in a state of rust and decay.

Recent advices from Europe are regarded as indicating that some of the entente governments themselves or their representatives, have not fully sustained the council in decisions in which they participated.

Unless the Adriatic question is settled satisfactorily within a few days, and there is no disposition to add to the embarrassment of the Italian government if it indicates an intention of taking the Fiume situation in hand, the United States government may consider the advisability of withholding for the present at least any further financial or other material assistance to the other powers unless the council decisions are carried out.

St. Louis, Mo.—Warning that if

Germany is permitted to continue her "careless operations" in Russia, in ten years the world would become as powerful as before the war, David R. Francis, American ambassador to Russia, talking before the convention of the American Bankers' Association, said the real solution of industrial unrest in Russia and the United States is in the peace treaty. He urged immediate ratification of the League of Nations.

He charged that the Brest-Litovsk treaty was arranged by Lenin with Germany, that Lenin and Trotsky were German agents and Labor troubles all over the world emanated from Russia, he said, and said it was impossible to establish peace in Europe while the Bolsheviks reigned in Russia.

Decision Reached Fixing Status of Body of Military Experts
Paris.—Marshall Foch, the allied commander-in-chief, obtained from the supreme council a decision fixing the status of the body of military experts charged with the determining at the end of each quarter the number of German effectives in the German army for the succeeding quarter. The marshal sent the council a note asking that this body be included among the missions of inter-allied control, and the council granted his request.

With the Fingers! Says Corns Lift Out Without Any Pain

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of a corn can shortly be lifted right out with the fingers if you will apply directly upon the corn a few drops of frezzone, says a Cincinnati attorney.

It is claimed that at small cost one can get a quarter of an ounce of frezzone at any drug store, which is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus without pain or soreness or the danger of infection. This new drug is an ether compound, and while sticky, dries the moment it is applied and does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue.

This announcement will interest many women here, for it is said that the present high-heeled footwear is putting corns on practically every woman's feet.

French Military Plans
Paris.—A peace-time army of 350,000 men and reduction of the term of military service from three years to one are recommended to the military committee of the chamber of deputies by Paul Demer, former minister of state. Under his plan 200,000 men would be called to the colors annually by conscription and 150,000 others recruited through voluntary enlistment.

This system would make the French army a war footing total 4,000,000 men, divided into an active army of 1,300,000 men, 700,000 reservists and 2,000,000 territorials.

Will Attempt To Signal Mars

Building Huge Balloon for Communication With Far Away Planet

Omaha.—Leo Stevens, balloon instructor at Fort Omaha, announced that David Todd will attempt to communicate with the planet Mars this fall in a balloon to be constructed and piloted by Stevens. The balloon, to be the largest ever made, will ascend 50,000 feet, Stevens said. Its capacity will be 140,000 feet. The balloon will be enabled to rise to the expected height, Stevens said by use of an invention which divides the balloon into two compartments, the upper containing hydrogen gas and the lower fresh air.

"SYRUP OF FIGS"

CHILD'S LAXATIVE

Look at tongue! Remove poisons from little stomach, liver and bowels

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless laxative or physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its delicious fruit taste. Full directions for child's dose on each bottle. Give it without fear. Mother! You must say "California."

Would Establish Reindeer Ranch
Winnipeg.—Stefansson, the explorer, has interviewed the Manitoba government with a view to establishing the aid of the province in establishing large reindeer ranches on arable lands in the northeast of the province, bordering on Hudson's Bay. No promise was made of what the government would eventually do in the matter.

Made Clean Sweep

Saskatchewan Farmer Wins Grand Championship in Iowa

George Rupp, of Lampman, Sask., has made a pretty clean sweep in the Belgian class at the Great Dairy Congress and Belgian Horse Show at Waterloo, Iowa. The Belgian show is characterized by the experts as the greatest breed show ever held in the United States. Rupp won 1st in his class, senior and grand champion for Belgian stallions with Paramount Flashwood (1570), his beautiful stallion foaled June 5, 1917, and well-known on western fair circuits. He also secured second in the four-year-old class, senior, first and seventh for yearlings, fifth and second and seventh for suckling foals. All classes had keen competition, entries being twenty or more in each class. He also got first in the group prize for three stallions, get of one sire, and a further first for three stallions bred and owned by exhibitor.

Admiral Beatty Given Banquet

Unique Compliment By Sailors To Admirals Of British Fleet

Portsmouth, England.—Vice-Admiral Sir David Beatty was given an unique compliment when, with 42 of his admirals, he was entertained at dinner in the town hall here by some 500 lower deck men, and presented with a silver cigar case as a token of loyalty and affection from all the ratings in the navy.

The day was made a great occasion here, salutes being fired upon the vice-admiral's arrival and his automobile being hailed through the streets to the town hall by sailors. Twenty thousand townspeople gathered at the town hall and cheered heartily, while the 500 hosts of the vice-admiral formed up on the steps to welcome him.

Fish Catch Increases

Total Value on Both Coasts for Month, $4,485,722
Ottawa.—An increase of $25,882 in the total value of sea fish at the point of landing during the month of August, as compared with the same month last year, is shown by the monthly statement issued from the naval department. Fish to the value of $4,485,722 were taken on both coasts last month.

On the Pacific coast, while the halibut fishing results were some 8,000 cwts. larger than in August, 1918, the total salmon landings fell by 87,000 cwts. In the southern and Vancouver Island districts there was an all-round increase in the catch of 20,000 cwts.

SUMMER COMPLAINT IS A SERIOUS BOWEL TROUBLE

Very few people escape an attack of Summer Complaint. It may be slight, or it may be severe, but nearly every-one is liable to it.

You can tell when it seizes on you, how it may end.

Allow the profuse diarrhoea, the vomiting and purging to continue for a day or two and you will become weak and prostrated.

Just as soon as the bowels become loosened up, get a bottle of Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and check these unnatural movements, and thus prevent the system from becoming weakened.

Mrs. L. J. Allen, wife of the well known wholesale and retail Fish Dealer, 44 Hill St., Amherst, N.S., writes: "I have four children, the oldest being eight years old. Every summer they were troubled with Summer Complaint. Doctors' prescriptions did not seem to do any one day. A friend asked me to use Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I at once got a bottle to my surprise and wonder. I soon saw a change in them. I now keep a bottle of it in the house all the time and will recommend it to any mother."

"Dr. Fowler's is 35c. a bottle. Get the original which has been put up for the past 74 years by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont."

Belgian Embassy Issues A Denial

Belgian Minister Has Not Been Recalled From The Hague

London, England.—The Belgian Embassy in London has authorized a complete denial of the Berlin report that the Belgian Minister has been recalled from The Hague and the Dutch Minister from Brussels. It is explained that the return to their respective countries of Carton De Wiart and Van Vollenhoven is merely a coincidence.

The former is giving up his diplomatic work to resume his political career, and the latter Dutch Minister, who is taking the place of the charge d'affaires, Van Vollenhoven, has been already nominated.

DREADED INFLUENZA

Medical Men Believe It Will Again Visit Canada This Autumn

There is a widespread belief among medical men that the epidemic of influenza, which swept over the world last year, will again appear in Canada during this autumn and winter. This dangerous trouble spares neither age nor sex, but it naturally finds its easiest victims among those who are run down in health, or those whose blood is weak and watery, and it is among the latter class in which the greatest number of fatalities occur. The surest way to prevent an attack of this dreaded trouble is to keep the blood rich and pure, and the safest and the way to do this is through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

No reasonable precaution to avert an attack of influenza or the grippé should be spared. The disease itself is deadly, but its after-effects, among those who are spared, make the life of the victim one of constant misery. Ask almost any one of those who have been attacked by influenza what they present condition of health is and you will find the answer. "Since I had the influenza I have never been fully well." This trouble leaves behind it a persistent weakness of the system, a general debility, indigestion, palpitation of the heart, and a tired feeling after even slight exertion. This is due to the thin-blooded condition in which a grippé almost always leaves its victims after the attack has been subdued.

They are the mercy of relapses and complications, often very serious. This condition continues until the blood is built up again, and for the purpose of building up the blood and strengthening the nervous system, equal a fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. From first to last these pills make no rich blood, which reaches every organ and nerve in the body. Thus the lingering grippe is driven out, and the weak, dependent victims of influenza are transformed into cheerful, healthy, happy men and women.

But better still, you can put yourself in a condition to resist the grippe of influenza by enriching the blood through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and this, alone, is the sensible thing to do at once.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

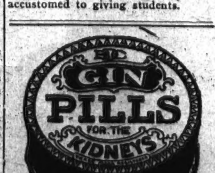

Falkenbach Blames Government
Berlin.—In his forthcoming book dealing with events from 1914 to 1916 General von Falkenbach, former chief of staff of the German army, complains of the government's failure to adopt his proposals in 1915 for the inauguration of peace negotiations with Russia. He also blames the government for its delay in beginning submarine warfare, whereby, he says, the German people were deprived of a "sure and effective weapon."

Some men seem to expect Opportunity drive up to the door and take them for a joy-ride.

Faultless in Preparation.—Unlike any other stomach regulator, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are the result of long study of vegetable compounds calculated to stimulate the stomachic functions and maintain them at the normal condition. Years of use have proved their faultless character and established their excellent reputation. And this reputation they have maintained for years and will continue to maintain, for these pills must always stand at the head of the list of standard preparations.

No Charge for Transfer of Registration of Livestock

Edmonton, Alta.—An innovation in connection with the annual sale of sheep and swine to be held here October 22-23 by the Alberta Provincial Sheep and Swine Breeders' Association, is that this year certificates of registration for livestock purchased will be forwarded to Ottawa, where the transfer to the new owner will be made free of charge.

The entries are numerous, and W. J. Stark declares that there is always a good demand for particularly good individuals, either sheep or swine, for the improvement of flocks and herds.

No More Gentile Than "Cascarets" for the Liver, Bowels

It is just as accurate as it is dangerous to take violent or nasty cathartics. Nature provides no shock-absorbers for your liver and bowels against calomel, harsh pills, sickening oil and salts. Cascarets work while you sleep, removing the toxins, poisons and sour, indigestible waste without griping or inconvenience. Cascarets regulate by strengthening the bowel muscles. They cost so little, too.

The Expenditure of $610,000,000

How the last Victory Loan was spent

For Demobilization

For Trade Extension

BEFORE buying Victory Bonds again you may want to know how Canada used the money you loaned her last year.

Canada borrowed the money to carry on the war and to provide credits for Great Britain and our Allies.

CONSIDERABLY more than one-half of the Victory Loan 1918 was spent on our soldiers. This included $312,900,000, for paying them, feeding them, bringing them home, separation allowances to their dependents, maintenance of medical services and vocational training schools.

$59,000,000 of the Victory Loan 1918 was paid on account of authorized Soldiers' gratuities.

$9,000,000 was spent at Halifax for relief and reconstruction after the disaster.

* * * * *

Other disbursements were not, strictly speaking, expenditures, but National Re-investments.

To Great Britain for example:

- * $173,500,000 was loaned for the purchase of our wheat and cereals.
- $9,000,000 for our fish.
- $30,000,000 for other Foodstuffs.
- $2,900,000 for Canadian built ships.
- $5,500,000 to pay other British obligations in Canada.

Making in all $220,900,000 advanced to Great Britain.

To our Allies, we loaned $8,200,000 for the purchase of Canadian foodstuffs, raw material and manufactured products.

The Re-investments will be paid back to Canada in due time, with interest.

These credits were absolutely necessary to secure the orders for Canada because cash purchases were impossible.

They have had the effect of tremendously helping agricultural and industrial workers to tide over the depression that would have followed the Armistice, had we not made these credit loans.

As far as money is concerned, 1919 has been, and is still—just as much a war year as 1918. Our main expenditures for war cannot be completed until well on into 1920. Thus another Victory Loan is necessary—Get ready to buy.

Victory Loan 1919 Campaign Has Started

The Southern Alberta Victory Loan campaign is off to a good start. All committees have been appointed. District captains have been named and organization has in most cases commenced. Southern Alberta covered itself with glory by subscribing nearly nine million dollars to last year's loan. This year it is asked for six and one-half million dollars, and it will go "over the top."

In some places, owing to poor crops, people may think themselves too hard up to subscribe to Victory Loan 1919, but that is a mistake. A man may be too hard up to subscribe as much as he would like to, but in this country he cannot be too hard up to subscribe at all. Therefore, the thing that he to be considered is not "Can I subscribe?" but "How much can I subscribe?"

There are very many reasons for subscribing to the Victory Loan. In the first place, it will help the returned soldiers. In fact, the plans for helping the returned soldiers could not go on without the Victory Loan. Every returned soldier should be an enthusiastic booster for the Victory Loan, because without it there is no use in talking about gratuities or anything like that, as the money would not be there.

It will help trade. Every farmer should be a booster for the Victory Loan, for upon it depends the sale of his crop at the good price he is getting for it today. If the Victory Loan fails the crop movement must cease, the Victory Loan succeeds the crop will move out and the money will move in.

It will increase prosperity. Canada has subscribed about a billion dollars to its own Victory Loans, and every time it has put over a loan the savings throughout the Dominion greatly increased. Subscribing to the Victory Loan is like paying out money with one hand and taking it back with the other in increased business, and having the bonds as well. The Victory Loan has no politics. Following is a letter from Hon. MacKenzie King, leader of the Liberal party, to Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance, which shows the country is united on behalf of the loan. A dispatch from Ottawa says:

OTTAWA, Oct. 3.—Thorough endorsement of the Victory Loan 1919, is expected by Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party in the Dominion, in a letter addressed to the minister of finance, Sir Henry Drayton. This is his letter:

"My dear Sir Henry: I am pleased to join with you in commending the Victory Loan to the good-will of the Dominion."

"It is imperative that Canada's credit should be maintained. As the government finds that borrowing is a necessity to meet existing conditions, it is in every way desirable that the amount required should, if possible, be raised within Canada itself. I hope, therefore, that this loan may be over-subscribed by citizens of the Dominion."

"You appreciate, of course, that in expressing a desire to see the loan a success, such obligation as I may have in the matter of criticizing unnecessary or extravagant public expenditures is increased rather than lessened; and that this endorsement is given upon your assurance that the organization of the campaign and everything about it is absolutely and entirely non-political."

"Yours sincerely,
(Signed)
"W. L. MACKENZIE KING."

Education Pays on The Farm!

Statistics show that farmers who have an education make larger incomes than those who have received but little schooling. An education is more necessary now than it was thirty years ago. Farming has changed greatly in this period. Then, farmers cut their grain with a cradle, bound it by hand and threshed it with a flail. They ground their grain between stones and lifted the wheat out of the mill in buckets. They treated their "mud-scribe cattle for 'hallow horn' and 'wolf in the tail', and planted their grain 'in the moon'. The horse and the ox were their only means of transportation. The farm houses had no conveniences; houses were lit with candles; the kitchen equipment consisted of larger of hard work. Now, the farmers have larger farms, they cut and bind their grain with binders and thresh with engine-driven separators. They frequently plow with tractors and many own automobiles. They select varieties of grain that are known to give larger returns than the ordinary varieties. They treat their seed to control diseases and plant at rates per acre, while experiments have shown to give maximum yields. They select improved types of breeding animals and feed their stock in accordance with knowledge derived from the chemistry of foods. The farm houses have been greatly improved. To keep up with the times and to make the most money from the farm one should know how to farm in accordance with the most improved methods. You can learn these methods at the Olds School of Agriculture. Education pays; you can learn in a few months what it would take years of experience to give you. Talk with any ex-student regarding the value of the course.

Classes in Agriculture and Domestic Science commence on October 29th. For particulars write: F. S. GRISDALE, Principal School of Agriculture, Olds, Alberta.

Advertising as a Service

The progressive merchants are using more advertising space than ever before—and there are excellent reasons why they should.

During the period of the war, trade and industry were unsettled as never before. The days of readjustment have brought a long train of problems. These have to do with the changing conditions in primary commodity markets, with ever shifting scales of pay for labor. The merchant finds new and strange factors operating in industry, affecting his sources of supply. He is called upon to exercise foresight in buying to an unprecedented degree. He must read aright the signs of the times in the commercial world—or suffer for his blunders.

In a new and peculiar sense he has become a public servant. He must protect his customers from the profiteer, from the speculator in commodities, from those who would exploit the people.

He is more than a mere purveyor of manufactured products. It is essential for him to maintain an organization so efficient that his store shall stand as a safeguard against not only excessive prices for products, but against inferior qualities in goods.

The service he is called upon to render to his customers does not end with the providing for them of the best goods that can be obtained at the lowest possible margin of profit for himself. It must include the giving to them of full and frank information about commodities through his advertising. If a higher price for a product is necessary it is his duty to his customers that they shall understand why. If he offers to them products with whose merits they are not already familiar, it is his duty to tell them all about such products—why they are in the market, what need they are in.

Thrift in the Schools

Increasingly insistent is the demand that the schools of the Dominion teach citizenship—that they equip the child to do the full duty of a good citizen. It is not forgotten that the schools have for generations done excellent work; but the experience of the last four years has brought the realization that a change in method and in subject-matter—a shift in emphasis is urgently required. A young man may be expert in arithmetic, in spelling, in writing, grammar, geography, and every other subject on the curriculum, and may, none the less, display qualities of brutality, injustice, wastefulness, and treason—may, indeed, be a holdover. An altered type of training, a new view of relative values must come. A knowledge of the fundamentals on which rests the structure of democracy must be a part of all instruction worthy of the name. Education may make or mar a nation—it has done so in Europe and elsewhere.

What are fundamentals? Honesty is one. Industry is another; and there are many more. Frugality is an important one, and one that is being overlooked in the new country. Canada was built on thrift, among other things—the pioneers were specialists in thrift.

Thrift is not hoarding; it is not miserliness; it concerns not with the peasant. Thrift is intelligent care of money and resources, conservation for the future, wise and thoughtful spending. The thrift man is an optimist, for he has stored up power.

And thrift must be taught in the schools. This will not add to the teachers' burdens; for every subject of study can be so taught that it helps to inculcate the practice of thrift. A Thrift Club in the classroom works wonders in the discipline of the school. It gives the pupils something worth while to talk about and something worth while to think about. United for a common aim, they learn esprit de corps. They come to know the value of money and the principles of business; they are inculcating the necessary preparation for citizenship. For the attractive investment of small savings,

War-savings Stamps afford an excellent medium. This plan has been highly successful in the schools of Great Britain, of the United States and Canada.

Thrift teaches in the schools encourages industry, because children wish to earn so that they may save. And, more than ever in its history, this old world needs to go to work. Production must be increased. "Produce, save, invest" must become the universal slogan.

One More Effort

Far beyond the expectation of the Empire and the world, Canada fought and strove and paid gallantly for five years. Indeed it may be doubted if any native Canadian witnessed the notable effort of the Dominion without amazement. The true spirit of the people was not understood until the guns began to speak in Belgium.

It rose, month by month, to greater, and still greater heights. The double climax came in the autumn of 1918, when the Canadian Corps marched from Cambrai to Mons, and when the nation subscribed $610,000,000 for Victory Bonds.

In the war Canada found herself. The name "Canadian" is respected the world over; not only in the nations allied with the British Empire in the defence of liberty, but in Germany itself.

The fighting is over. The great task of dearticulating the organization built by four years of ardent effort is almost complete. The work of maintaining the Army until it is fully repatriated, and of fulfilling completely the national obligations to the soldiers has added much to Canadian War expenditure.

For that reason there is instant need of a Victory Loan. The patriotic people whose ardor and energy brought Canada into the might are asked to keep the Dominion there by buying Bonds. The honor of the nation is involved in the success of the Loan. The people who supported the soldiers constantly while they were in Flanders will not fail in one particular to continue that support until the men are re-established in profitable civilian occupations.

Considering the achievements of this proud people, there is reason for the belief that the success of this latest Victory Loan will be instant and overwhelming. But all citizens must have a part in it. It is not a task to be half done by the whole people, or wholly done by half the people. Let every citizen subscribe!

Proportional Representation —No. 2

In last week's article on the above subject some of the inequalities of our present system of electing representatives to public office were pointed out, the growth of the P.R. method of election noted, and one or two principles underlying that method outlined. In conclusion it was stated that an endeavor would be made to explain the method of voting and election in this week's article.

First of all, let it be repeated and emphasized that it is the essence of representative government that every voter should be represented in the representative assembly. If a considerable proportion of the electorate come to feel that they have no voice in the Government, the distance is short to that dangerous state of mind which regards political processes as futile and hopeless. The world today, Canada included, requires to guard against this.

The theory of Proportional Representation is that each considerable party or group of opinion should be represented in parliament, or legislature, or municipal council, in proportion to its voting strength—that majorities may rule and minorities be heard. How does Proportional Representation put this theory into practice? The method used is what is known as the transferable vote.

When the ballot with the list of candidates for an office, say a municipal council, is presented, the elector, instead of marking "X" after his choice, or choices if more than one is to be elected, as at present, votes as follows:

(a) By placing the figure 1 after his favorite candidate. The voter may also:

(b) Place the figure 2 opposite his second choice;

(c) Place the figure 3 after his third choice, and so on, numbering as many candidates as he places in the order of his preference, and may even so indicate his preference for a larger number of candidates than are actually to be elected.

A candidate, to ensure election, need not poll a majority, but only a certain proportion of the votes cast, called a quota. This quota is the smallest number of votes required to ensure election. For example, in a constituency electing only one member, it is not necessary even now that a candidate should poll all the votes; if he obtains one more than half he secures a majority and is elected, because no one else can poll so many. Similarly, under P.R., it would be necessary in a one-member constituency for the candidate elected to secure a clear majority. In a two-member constituency, a candidate who obtains one more than a third would be elected, for only two candidates can poll more than a third. If three members are to be elected, it would take one more vote than a fourth of the votes cast to ensure election.

This quota necessary to election is, therefore, found by dividing the total number of votes cast by one more than the number of representatives to be elected and adding one. For example, assuming that there are three candidates to be elected, and the total vote cast was 330. The latter figure divided by four (that is, one more than the number to be elected) gives 83, and this, plus one, gives 84, which would be the quota, and as not more than three candidates could secure that number, regardless of how many might be in the field, those three would be elected.

The next question is: How are the votes counted and transferred? (a) The first preference votes obtained by each candidate are noted—that is, the candidates opposite whose names the figure 1 has been marked by the voters.

(b) The quota is ascertained in the manner outlined above.

(c) Candidates, if any, who have received the quota, or more than the quota, are declared elected.

(d) Surplus votes of those candidates who have received more than their quota are transferred, in strict proportions, to the unselected candidates indicated as the next preferences by the voters (that is, candidates having the figure 2 opposite their names).

(e) Any further candidates who, as the result of such transfer of second preferences, have received the necessary quota are declared elected.

(f) The candidates lowest on the poll are then eliminated one after another, and the votes they receive are transferred in accordance with the next choice of the electors indicated thereon. This process is continued until the required number of candidates have obtained a quota, or the number of candidates not eliminated is reduced to the number of seats vacant.

It will be seen, therefore, that whereas under our present system the voter who marks a ballot for a candidate who is at the foot of the poll completely loses his representation in the public body for which the election is held, under Proportional Representation he, having failed to secure the election of his first choice, has his ballot transferred to his second choice; if his second choice fails of election, his vote is transferred to his third choice, and so on. Thus every voter, in the final analysis, is represented by a representative for whom he recorder a preference. Surely, a more democratic and fairer way than obtains under our present system.

(Next week some examples of how P.R. has worked out where it has been tried will be given, and possibly some of the objections raised against P.R. answered.)

Germany's New Escutcheon

Berlin.—Germany has a new escutcheon, from which the Hohenzollern arms have been eliminated. It consists of a black one-headed eagle on a gold field. The "new" eagle, which has shed its erstwhile imperial crown and collar, is not a rampant bird and would not scutate enough in its sitting posture but for the color of its beak, tongue and talons, which are red.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS OF GREAT HELP

Mothers, if your baby or growing child is sickly; if he does not sleep well at night; if he cries a great deal; is constipated and his little bowels are uncomfortable; if he does not thrive, give him Baby's Own Tablets. They have proved of great help to thousands of mothers. Baby's Own Tablets, Mrs. W. H. DeCarter, Corson's Siding, Ont., says: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets and have found them excellent for the little ones, and would not be without them." The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative and are guaranteed to contain no harmful drug—that is why they always do good and never harm. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Road Building in Manitoba

Winnipeg.—Authorization for the construction of 277 miles of roads under the Good Roads Board, has been announced. The approximate cost is $670,000. This brings the total mileage up to 3,758 miles at a cost of about $92,000, borne equally by the province and municipalities.

Boycott Hits Japan

China Willing to Give Us Trade If Ships Are Provided
According to the Japanese newspaper, Nichi Nichi, the Chinese boycott on anything made in Japan is having its effect on Japanese trade. The paper estimates that Chinese imports from Japan have dropped 70 per cent to 80 per cent since the boycott began early this year. Exports out of Japan were: April, $6,840,000; May, $5,670,000; June, $5,180,000.

The statement is made in China that if the United States and Canada put more ships on the Pacific they can get the trade that China formerly gave to Japan.

Canada's Fire Losses

Ottawa.—Fire losses sustained in Canada during 1918 by fire insurance companies totaled $10,359,257, as compared with $16,319,102 in 1917, according to the annual report of the Dominion Department of Insurance, tabulated in the Commons.

—Not a day goes by that Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil does not widen the circle of its friends. Orders for it come from the most unlikely places in the west and far north for its fame has traveled so far. It deserves this attention, for no oil has done so much for humanity. Its moderate cost makes it easy to get.

Cannot Visit Mexico

British Citizens Cannot Now Enter Mexico, According to Regulation

Washington.—British citizens desiring to visit Mexico for the first time cannot get their passports visited, under instructions which Ambassador Bonillas said he had sent to the Mexican consuls. British subjects resident in Mexico, or who have interests there, were not affected, he said.

The ambassador did not know why his government had taken this step, but pointed out that the British Government had refused to give passports for Mexicans desiring to go to Europe, when they had to pass through England. Heretofore, the entry of British subjects into Mexico had been permitted, providing they signed an agreement absolving the Mexican Government from liability for any "accident" they might sustain.

Doukhobors May Move

Verigin Says Sect May Migrate to South America
Regina, Sask.—That it is quite possible the Doukhobors in Canada will move to fresh pastures, was the statement made here by Peter Verigin, the leader of the sect. The Doukhobors own a lot of land in Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia, the largest colony being in the latter province.

If the land holdings could be disposed of, said Mr. Verigin, it would be easy to move, and South America would likely be their choice of a new home.

Chain of Imperial Aerodromes

London.—Right Hon. Mr. Welby, at a public welcome to the crew of the R-34 at Glasgow, stated that he looked forward to the time when there would be a chain of imperial aerodromes linking the main units of the Empire and connected by auxiliary services to the smaller nations. He said that he had great faith in the usefulness of coastal flying boats, as proposed in connection with Australian and West Indian coastal services. Military reasons, he stated, required the linking up of the Empire by definite routes, largely coinciding with the commercial routes. He deprecated the government action in monopolizing civil aviation, and anticipated great results from the rivalry of private firms.

Sir Robert Horne stated that the public had not yet realized the remarkable war work accomplished by the airships. The Admiralty had started with eight and finished with a hundred—beating the Germans.

Regulate Cold Storage

Washington.—Federal regulation of cold storage has been agreed to by the house agriculture committee, as recommended by the President in his address on the high cost of living. The committee reported a Bill limiting the time that food may be held in storage to twelve months, and providing that cold storage food must be plainly marked.

Keeping Fit

BY DR. SAMUEL HAMILTON.

It is because of the war that the perfect physical man has all at once become the idol of the world. You can make of yourself, even rather late in life, almost anything you like. You are not going to get fit in one day, one month, or, perhaps, a year, unless you take enough outdoor exercise to keep the circulation going and practise the athlete's first principle—to keep the system clean. He does not give his body a chance to absorb poisons. He not only takes his cold shower, after exercise, but he knows a cleansing of the intestines is important, and he takes occasionally a good regulator and liver cleanser, such as a dose of castor oil, or, what is much better, a tiny pill made up of May-apple, aloin and jalap, and sold by almost all druggists in the land as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Keep the kidneys in good order also.

Avoid too much meat, alcohol or tea. Drink plenty of pure water, preferably hot water, before meals, and drive the uric acid out of the system by taking "Anurio" (anti-uric-acid). This can be obtained at almost any drug store.

Send a bottle of water to the chemist at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and you will receive free medical advice as to whether the kidneys are affected. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headaches, diary spells, or twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism or gout, or sleep is disturbed two or three times a night. Take heed, before too late! Get Anurio (anti-uric-acid), for it will put new life into your kidneys and your entire system. Ask your nearest druggist for it or send Dr. Pierce ten cents for trial package of "Anurio."

Explorer Finds Buried Village

Eighty Well-Preserved Frozen Bodies Were Found

Nome, Alaska.—Discovery of an ancient buried Eskimo village, near Point Barrow, the "corner of the continent," was made recently by W. B. Van Valin, who has arrived here on his way to the States after spending nearly two years in the Barrow country for the University of Pennsylvania museum, gathering relics of what has been termed the "stone age" of the natives of far northwestern Alaska.

Eighty well-preserved frozen bodies were found in the village, Van Valin reports. Their clothing and the shape of their heads and other parts of their bodies differed from the clothing and bodies of the present day Eskimos. Remains of several of the Eskimos were shipped by Van Valin to the museum.

Evidently the ancient village was overtaken by some catastrophe, it is believed. None of the present natives of the Barrow section knew of the existence of the lost village.

Simple Way to Get "Pep" To Be Put Right On Your Feet

When a man has lost ambition to "dig in" and stay at things when he complains of headache, lightheadedness, right side, pains in the shoulder blade, it's purely a case of "Liver". These symptoms invariably indicate a clogged, inactive liver. The body can't get rid of its wastes, and the whole system is half paralyzed. Dr. Hamilton's Pills stimulate the liver into activity in one night, bring a mild vegetable laxative, they produce results in a few hours. The bilious headache and constipation are cured, spirits rise, complexion clears, animation returns. Nothing is so calendar so efficient for that tired, fagged feeling as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Very mild, don't interfere with work, invariably do lots of good. Try a 25c box, all dealers.

THE COW PUNCHER

"That is a good thought," agreed Mr. Duncan, "but not a conclusive one. In reckoning the happiness a man gives me most, of course, subtract the unhappiness he occasions. He may make a great sum of money and use much of it in creating happiness, but if in the making of the money he used methods that resulted in unhappiness, we must subtract the unhappiness first before we can give him any credit for the happiness he has created. And I am disposed to think that many a philanthropist, if weighed in that balance, would be found to have a debit side bigger than his credit. No matter how much wealth a man may amass, or how widely he may distribute it, we can't credit him with success if he has oppressed the hiring or dealt unfairly with his competitors or the public. Such a man is not a success; he is a failure. In his own soul he knows he is a failure, that is, provided he still has a soul, and if not, as I said before, he is a greater failure still."

Out of this discussion Mr. Duncan evolved the copy line, "The copy line of a life is in direct proportion to its net contribution to human happiness," and Dave sat writing it far into the night. As soon as Dave had finished to read it, Mr. Duncan took him one day to the public library, and the young man groped in amazement up and down the great rows of books. Presently a strange sense of inadequacy came over him. "I can never read all of those books, nor half of them," he said, "I suppose one must read them in order to be well informed."

Mr. Duncan appeared to change the subject. "You like fruit?" he asked.

"Yes, of course. Why?"
"When you go into a fruit store do you stand and say, 'I can never eat all of that fruit; crates and crates of it, and carloads more in the warehouse? Of course you don't. You eat enough for the good of your system, and let it go at that. Now, just apply the same sense to your reading. Read enough to keep your mind fresh and alert, and vigorous; give it one new thought to wrestle with every day, and let the rest go."

"Oh, I know that there is a certain school which holds that unless you have read this author or that author, or this book or that book, you are hopelessly uninformed or behind the times. That's literary snobbery. Let them talk. A mind that consumes more than it can assimilate is morally on a par with a stomach that swallows more than it can digest. Gluttons, both of them. Read as much as you can think about, and no more. The trouble with many of our people is that they don't stop to think, but to save themselves the trouble of thinking. The mind, left to itself, insists upon activity. So they, choriformly, it."

Mr. Duncan also took occasion to speak with Dave about his religious views. He did not forget Dave's explanation of why he went out of the church. "I sympathize with your point of view a great deal," he said, "but don't be too sweeping in your conclusions. The church is too fussy over details; too anxious to fit the mind of man—which is his link with the Infinite—into some narrow, soul-crushing creed, too insistent upon the form of belief and not nearly insistent enough upon conduct. It makes me think of a man who was trying to tell me an automobile the other day. He was explaining all about the trimmings; the cushions and the lights and the horn and all that sort of stuff, and when he was through I said, 'Now tell me something about the motor.' I want to know about the thing that makes the wheels go round. If it's no good I guess the trimmings are only fit for junk. Well, that's the way with the church. The motor that has kept it running for nineteen centuries is the doctrine of love; love of man to man, love of man to God, love of God to man. Nothing about wrath—that's only a back-fire—but love. Without that motor all the trimmings are junk. Each sect has its own trimmings, but they all profess to use the same motor. Still, the motor is all right, even if it is neglected and abused. I don't think you'll find a better, and you must have power of some kind."

"What about Socialism?" asked Dave.
"Very good, insofar as it is constructive. But there is a destructive brand of Socialism which seizes the fancy of disappointed and disgruntled men and women, and bids them destroy. There is a basic quality in all human nature, which is the desire for destruction. You see it in the child pulling his toys to pieces, or in the mob wrecking buildings. Destruction is easy and passionate, but construction demands skill and patience. I have been at some of their meetings," said Dave. "They lay great stress on the war between Labor and Capital."

"Between husband and wife in the family of production," interrupted Mr. Duncan. "Nothing is to be gained by that quarrel. I admit the husband has been overbearing, offensive, brutal, perhaps; but the wife has been slovenly, inefficient, shallow. Neither has yet been brought to realize how hopeless is the case of one without the other. And I don't think they will learn that by quarreling. What they need is not hard words, but mutual respect and sympathy, and an honest conception of what constitutes success. Doctrines and policies are irrelevant to the extent to which they cause men to think, either directly or by creating environment conducive to thought; but they will never bring the golden age of happiness. That can come only through the destruction of selfishness, which can be destroyed only by the power of love. That is why I emphasized the motor in our talk about the church. It is our only chance."

Dave talks with Mr. Duncan became almost nightly occurrences, either at the Duncan home, or when he drove the family—for the master of the house often accompanied them—or when they met down town, as frequently happened. And the boy was not slow to realize the broad nature of the talk to which Mr. Duncan had set himself. His education was to be built of every knowledge and experience that could go into the founding of a well-developed life.

The climax seemed to be reached when Mr. Duncan and Dave to accompany him to a dinner at which a noted thinker, just crossing the continent, had consented to speak.

"It will be evening dress," said Mr. Duncan. "I suppose you are hardly fitted out that way?"

"I guess not," said Dave, smiling broadly. He recalled the half-mocking sarcasm with which the Metford gang referred to any who might be seen abroad in their "herford frocks." He had a sudden vision of himself running the gauntlet of the ridicule.

But Mr. Duncan was continuing. "I think I can fix you up," he said. "We must be pretty nearly of a size, and I have a spare suit." And almost before he was aware of it, Dave was dressed in a suit that was arranged that Dave should attend the dinner.

It was an eventful night for him. His shyness soon wore off, for during these months he had been learning to accept any new experience gladly. "Life is made up of experience," his teacher had said, "therefore welcome every opportunity to broaden your life by travelling in new tracks. There are just two restrictions—the injurious and the immoral. You must grow by experience, but be sure you grow the right way. Only a fool must personally seize the red line to see if it will burn. . . . But most of us are fools." And so he sat among the company of the best minds of the town he felt that a new and very real world was opening before him. In good clothes seemed to work up in some way through his sub-consciousness and give him a sense of capability. He was in the mental atmosphere of men who did things, and by conforming to their customs he had brought his mind into harmony with theirs, so that it could receive suggestions, and—who knows?—return suggestions. And he was made to think, think.

As he walked home with Mr. Duncan under the stars he spoke of the subtle sense of well-being and ability which came with good clothes. "I don't mind confessing I have always had something like contempt for stylish dressing," he said. "Now I almost feel that there's something to it."

"There is some good quality in everything that survives," said Mr. Duncan. "Otherwise it would not survive. That doesn't mean, of course, that the good qualities of the world are in those things. Take the use of liquor, for instance; perhaps the greatest source of misery we have. Yet it touches a quality in man's life: sociability, conviviality, if you like; but a quality that has virtue in it none the less. And the errors of sex are so often linked with love that one can scarcely say where virtue ceases and where vice begins. I know convention placards them plainly enough, but convention does not make virtue nor vice virtue. There are deeper laws down beneath, and sometimes they may be at defiance all accepted codes."

"Yet I would not quarrel with the accepted code—until I know I had something better." Accepted codes represent man's net progress through experience to truth. The code, for instance, "Thou shalt not kill," we accept it in general, but not completely. The State does not hesitate to kill its enemies, or even to carry out purposes which have no relation to defence. And shall we not allow similar exceptions to the other codes? And yet, although we may find our codes are not infallible, are they not still the best guides we have? "To return to clothes. Clothes won't make you, but they will help you to make yourself. Only, don't become a clothes-tippler. You can run to intoxication on fine raiment as well as on fine wine. It has a virtue in it, but just beyond the virtues lies the vice."

CHAPTER EIGHT.

The summer was not far gone when Dave, through an introduction furnished by Mr. Duncan, got a new job. It was in the warehouse of a wholesale grocery, trundling cases and sacks of merchandise. It was cleaner than handling coal, and the wages were better—fifty dollars a month, to begin.

"The first thing is to get out of the dead-line," said Mr. Duncan. "I am not hoping that you will have found destiny in a wholesale warehouse, but you must get out of the dead-line. As long as you shovel coal you will shovel coal. And you are not capable of anything better until you think you are."

"But I've liked it pretty well," said Dave. "As long as I was just working for my wages it did go, but it was different after I got to see that even shovelling coal was worth while. I suppose it is the same with groceries, or whatever one does. As soon as you begin to study what you handle the work loses its drudgery. It isn't a man's job that makes him sick of his job; it's what he thinks of his job."

The Lone Match

An Experience Which Befell King Edward

The Prince of Wales has had many strange experiences on his Canadian travels, but it is hardly likely that he will be called upon to endure such a terrible ordeal as befell his grandfather during his sojourn in Canada. One day, when crossing the prairies, he produced a cigar, and his companions followed suit. "A match, please," he requested, whereupon it was discovered that there was not a match among the whole party. Wind was tearing across the prairie, and lots were cast to determine who should attempt to keep the solitary, precious match alight. To his dismay the last fell upon King Edward, then Prince of Wales. He lay on the ground, and his companions gathered round and stretched their coats for shelter. The match was lit—so were all the cigars. But seldom before or after, King Edward used to say, did he feel so nervous as at the moment of striking that match.

It is easier to mend a broken heart than a broken head.

YOU NEED NOT STOP

working or playing, as the case may be, when you suffer from a skin injury, so long as you apply Zam-Buk as soon as the lesion takes place. It stops the bleeding, and the pain, destroys all germs, prevents blood-poisoning and heals quickly.

Zam-Buk should be in every home, especially where there are children. Children who have once had Zam-Buk applied will try for it again. They never forget a remedy that ends their pain. Get a box to-day and keep it handy. Zam-Buk will keep indefinitely without losing any of its strength or purity. As a household liniment, therefore, it is most economical.

Equally good for cuts, burns, scalds, bruises, sore throats and eczema. All dealers 50c. box.

Aerial Development

Feasibility of Establishing Fast Mail Service Between Canadian and American Cities

The possibilities of aerial development are beyond those of all other forms of communication and transportation now known to man. During the international race, which had as its primary object proof as to the feasibility of establishing a fast mail service between several Canadian and American cities, letters and newspapers travelled from New York to Toronto or vice versa in a very few hours. What the ultimate establishment of a regular service of this kind, which could be maintained with reasonable certainty for several months in the year, would mean to the business interests of both communities is impossible of estimation at this time. In Britain, where the airplane is in steady use for commercial purposes, including a passenger and mail schedule from London to Paris, the benefits of the air route have been proven beyond all possibility of discussion. The development there is continuing with a breadth of vision and a rapidity that show to what extent the British people regard the importance of aerial leadership in every phase of its application to modern conditions.

The international contest, which has had its advertising value for Toronto and Canada generally, as well as for the Canadian National Exhibition, has rather emphasized the reliability of the airplane as well as its adaptability for the services of peace.—From the Toronto Globe.

Comet Approaching Earth

Cambridge, Massachusetts. — The comet discovered recently by Dr. Joel H. Metcalf, of the Harvard Observatory, will become visible to the naked eye within a short time. It is now of the eighth magnitude, but on October 16 will be four times brighter and about 44,000,000 miles from the earth. It is now near the sun, and its course will take it close to the polar star.

The weight of the transgressor is invariably light.

Many a woman smiles inwardly while crying outwardly.

How Long Can They Do It?

What Is the True Relation of Cost of Revenue in Government Operation of Roads?

There is in Canada current opinion that it costs the Government $1.02 to get $1 gross revenue from the railroads which have been emancipated from the capitalist class. A deficit of $50,000,000 in 1919 is the forecast. This straightaway gives rise to conjecture as to what the true relation of cost and revenue would be if some courageous administration reached down to the bottom of our Government operation of the roads.

Thanks in part to the peculiarities of the Canadian situation, the private Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific have contributed nobly to the Government's experiment in railroad operation. This and other causes have steadily lifted the percentage of cost to gross revenue. Today it is 89 per cent. for the Grand Trunk and 81 per cent. for the Canadian Pacific. The percentage thus actually discloses the shocking scandal of surplus, rather than the uplifting inspiration of deficit.

Monthly statements, duly audited and certified, show Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk can still operate on their own motive power. The exact status of the government roads is not so clearly revealed. Why it is not is a matter of conjecture, friendly, invidious or neutral, as may be. Some irreconcilables want to know how they are to reach a conclusive audit of Canadian Northern, making a true capital investment basis for figures. Others say there is an operating deficit of more than three per cent.

What if it be so that the more wheels turn round the faster they go, the more money they lose. If it costs 3 cents net loss to take in a dollar, isn't the taxpayer there to pay it? And doesn't the paltry 3 cents go at once back into circulation? "As long as he has a dollar left to burn, why should the taxpayer write and turn?"

A staunch supporter of a western co-operative grain concern with a long and honorable record of losses used to refer to its "turnover" as its "turn of the wheel." Happily free of the embarrassment of literary cult, he has given the government's railroad auditors a book learning, accurate and novel. They should be satisfied, and so should the taxpayers. For, as a famous inquirer for Government figures says: "If a taxpayer is not to pay these taxes, what is he for? How long can they do it?" — Wall Street Journal.

To Ensure Coal Supply

Washington.—The British Embassy has informed the state department that owing to the railroad strike in England, the supply of bituminous coal for Gibraltar, Malta, Egypt, Sierra Leone and British coaling stations in the Atlantic probably will be restricted for the present to outward bound British vessels.

Closing of some of the principal ports of the United Kingdom, also probably will be necessary during the strike, it was said, in order to prevent congestion. An order holding all British vessels bound for the British Isles either in the leading ports or at a port of call, was said to be imminent.

D'Annunzio's Message To The Venetians

Urging Them to Throw Off the Shameful Yoke

Rome, Italy. — Papers in Venice published a message from Capt. Gabriele d'Annunzio to Venetians invoking their aid and urging them to throw off the shameful yoke. Captain d'Annunzio declares, "I am absolute master of Fiume. The victor's army, reprimanded in its own country, is reconstituting itself around me, is being consolidated, and is triumphant. I shall remain at Fiume in face of all. We shall build at Fiume a new country."

Rome papers express regret at the message, which, they state, aims at destroying the unity and discipline of the state. According to the Tribune, Prince Aimone, son of Duc d'Aosta, is at Fiume, as is also Commandant Rizzo.

Middle Aged Women
Are Here Told the Best Remedy for Their Troubles.

Freemont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run-down condition so it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared."—Mrs. M. Gomez, 225 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

C. H. Powlett, who has been a prominent farming figure in the Cowley district for the past ten or eleven years, has sold out to James Irwin, former chief of police of the town of Blairmore.

The parlor bolshevik had the floor.

"I want land reform," he shrieked. "I want education reform. I want marriage reform. I want—"

But here a listener interrupted with a loud and savage yawn: "What you want, old man," he said, "is chloroform."

Sergt. Major Smart, who has just returned from overseas, spent a day in Blairmore this week as guest of Rev. and Mrs. Young. On the way west Sergt. Smart had the privilege of playing an organ recital at Medicine Hat for the Prince's pleasure. Sergt. Smart has been engaged by one of the large theatres in the brick city as music superintendent.

We went out chicken hunting the other day and when on the ground were approached by a game warden who informed us that we were not to kill more than ten a day. As our cartridges contained fourteen shots we decided to quit hunting for fear of breaking the law and immediately returned home. Nothing like being a good citizen, eh!

The champion heavyweight fighter of the world desires to give battle to two foreign champions and another American boxer, all on the same night, and one right after the other. Dempsey should recall the fate of one William Hohenzollern who started in 1914 to do the very same thing. This would-be champion is now sawing wood in Holl and reporting fans know that his kind do not come back.—Ex.

A stylishly dressed woman entered the restaurant. The waiter handed her a bill of fare written in French, and said: "Please mark off the dishes you wish to order." Could a woman dressed in the height of fashion confess that she was unable to read in French? Taking the pencil, she made a few dashes and the order read: "Dinner 50c." "September 20th," "Vegetables." "Please pay at the desk," and "No tips." The waiter brought her a beefsteak and chip potatoes, but she did not dare to raise a word in protest.

Ontario brewers offer $5,000 reward to any person that can prove that their near-beer brew is intoxicating, and there are hundreds of thirsty souls who would cheerfully volunteer to act as demonstrators.

Dr. Rose, who with a party has been conducting a geological survey of this section of the Rocky Mountains for the past several years, returned last Sunday from Calgary, having completed this year's work in the neighborhood of west of the Highwood district. The Doctor hopes next year to get through as far as Banff.

One of the finest plays of the season was presented by the Colonial Comedy Company at the opera house last night, and was well received. The grand Irish Comedy "The End of a Perfect Day" proved to be everything as advertised. Each artist staged well his or her part, particularly "Paddywack," a charming Irish colleen, who brought down the house with her characteristic Irish traits and wits. Vicar Mayfield, Mrs. Chesterton, Lord Sutton and Eileen were splendid characters. The play was deserving of a crowded house, but owing to the stormy weather, but a small crowd turned out.

The first of the winter series of high-class Vaudeville programmes will be staged at the local opera house on Friday night of next week, when the Hippodrome circuit will present La Terse, the Great Character Dancer; Lewis and Barton, comedians; The Menke Sisters, classic entertainers; and Pearl's trained dogs—a unique programme in itself. In addition there will be a splendid five-reel feature picture. We understand that arrangements have been made to make the vaudeville a weekly feature at the opera house, and every Friday will be staged one of the greatest programmes on tour.

Next Monday will be Thanksgiving Day, and a public holiday.

Immediately the Government decided to stop profiteering in sugar, local preachers cut down their marriage fees and several couples became benedictines during the past week.

A meeting of provincial chiropractors was held at Calgary on Sunday last and a campaign was planned to bring about the legal recognition of their profession by the government of the province.

On Sunday evening the annual Thanksgiving Service will be held at the Union Church. The Church has been beautifully decorated for the occasion. Special music and singing will be a feature of the service. On the following Tuesday evening a Thanksgiving Social will be held at the church.

Dr. Rose recently visited and examined the new coal discovery west of Highwood in the Rockies. There he reports a seam of semi-anthracite, thirty feet in thickness, which he claims is equal in quality and quantity to anything in Western Canada. The seam is directly in line with seams now being operated at Coleman. Prospects for development on a larger scale are very bright and it is hoped that the new field will be tapped by railroad within a year.
